NOTE TO TERRY MATTKE

Dave Brown on the Taiwan Desk at State called. He checked out your request with the Coal Section of Commerce and people in the Taiwan trade field to see if he could find out about the proposal. No one has ever heard of this deal and Commerce's Coal office is not aware of this proposal.

Mr. Brown said "we are not in a position to give him advice one way or the other. That is to say, we can't confirm that it would make good sense to make this deal. The Commerce Coal office said, 'Generally speaking, the Wyoming mines are high-cost producers and many have not been economical.' No great asset to sell. All the information we could provide on short notice."

Dave Brown can be reached at 647-7711 if you have any further questions.
