Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's Presidency and Vice Presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, September 2015. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

System of Arrangement

Records for this systematic project were found in two collection areas—Bush Presidential Records: Staff and Office Files and Bush Vice Presidential Records: Staff and Office Files.

Scope and Content

The contact sheets from the White House Photographic Office contain official White House photographs of the activities, events, and travels of President and Mrs. Bush. The first 100 days of the Bush Administration took place from January 20, 1989 to April 29, 1989. The photographs during this time period consist of inaugural events, swearing-in ceremonies of new cabinet members, various meetings and speeches, domestic and foreign trips, working visits with Heads of State, and assorted photo-ops.
