Scope and Content

The Richard Cheney Collection consists of correspondence, itineraries, legislation, notes, press releases, printed material, proposed legislation, reports, speeches, and talking points. The records relate to Cheney's involvement with issues such as appropriations and budget, arms control, East-West relations, foreign military assistance, foreign travel, government regulation, humanitarian assistance, international defense cooperation, meeting arrangements, missile defense, the Persian Gulf War, POW/MIA issues, START, strategic trade control, U.S.-Soviet relations, and women in combat.

Biographical Note

Richard B. Cheney served as the Secretary of Defense for President George H.W. Bush from March 1989 through January 1993. During his long career in public service, starting in 1969, Cheney served four Presidents, as well as being an elected official.

As Secretary of Defense, Cheney directed the United States invasion of Panama and Operation Desert

Storm in the Middle East. He was also heavily involved with pressing issues such as arms control, downsizing the defense budget, NATO, social issues affecting the armed forces, and various international conflicts/concerns.

For additional information, see Cheney's official Department of Defense biography at <https://history.defense.gov/Multimedia/Biographies/Article-View/Article/571284/richard-b-cheney/>.

System of Arrangement

Chronological Files—6 boxes

Correspondence, papers, and speeches/messages from Secretary Cheney arranged chronologically. These 1992 files are the same as the records entitled "SecDef Signers" in the correspondence files for 1989–1991.

Correspondence Files—40 boxes

Correspondence, schedule proposals, nominations, invitations, and reports to Congress divided by year and arranged chronologically.

Country Files—61 boxes

Correspondence, reports, speeches and statements, and talking points divided by year and arranged alphabetically by country. Some file names are followed by numbers and/or letters in brackets. See following examples:

Australia [1]
Australia [2]
Brazil [A]
Brazil [B]

The numbers indicate that large folders received from Cheney were divided by the processing archivists for ease of use. The letters were added when the folders were rearranged alphabetically by the processing archivists to indicate that folders with the same title were initially filed in different boxes.

Meetings Files—32 boxes

Correspondence, reports, speeches, and itineraries regarding Secretary Cheney's meetings with Bush Administration officials divided by year and arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Subject Files—85 boxes

Correspondence, reports, papers, printed material and proposed legislation divided by year and arranged alphabetically by topic. As with the country files, some of the file names in this series are followed by numbers and/or letters in brackets. [See explanation above.]
