Scope and Content

The William P. Glade Collection consists of personal materials originating out of The United States Information Agency's (USIA), Office of Educational and Cultural Affairs. The documents range in date from September 1989 to Aug 1992. Some documents, in a small quantity, date back prior to 1989 and post-1992.

The documents in this collection include reports from USIA programs such as, the Fulbright Program, the International Visitor Program, and various other U.S. funded academia research programs. Other documents include Congressional and U.S. Embassy correspondents, along with budget and staffing reports for the agency. Some non-USIA documents such as the President's Committee on The Arts and Humanities, as well as, The National Endowment for the Arts, can be found within this collection. Additional materials such as, USIA travel reports and weekly reports to the USIA Director, are located within this collection. Open press news articles are also included.

Biographical Note

Dr. William P. Glade was appointed as the Associate Director of the U.S. Information Agency for Educational and Cultural Affairs by President George H. W. Bush, where he served between September 1989 and August 1992. Prior to Dr. Glade's appointment, he served as a professor of economics at the University of Texas at Austin since 1970. Dr. Glade has also served in various capacities at the University of Wisconsin: professor of business and economics, 1966–1971; associate professor of commerce and economics, 1964–1966; associate professor of commerce and Hispanic studies, 1963–1964; and assistant professor of commerce and Hispanic studies, 1960–1963. In addition, he has served as an assistant professor of economics at the University of Maryland, 1957–1960; and a teaching fellow in economics at the University of Texas, 1953–1955.

Post administration Dr. Glade continued his service as a professor of economics at the University of Texas at Austin. Dr. Glade has held numerous consulting positions for government agencies to include the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars and the Ford Foundation.

Dr. Glade graduated from the University of Texas (B.B.A., 1950; M.A., 1951; Ph.D., 1955). He was born July 29, 1929, in Wichita Falls, TX. He is married, has four children, and resides in Austin, TX.
