Inventory for FOIA Request 1998-0497-F

Records Regarding the Middle East Peace Conference in Madrid, Spain

Extent

130 folders

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, October 1998–March 1999. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 1998-0497-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 1998-0497-F contains materials related to the planning and organization of the October 1991 Middle East Peace Conference in Madrid, Spain. This FOIA primarily contains correspondence, memoranda, cables, diplomatic dispatches, reports, studies, maps, and printed material which document all aspects of staging the conference as well as the conference itself. The materials in this FOIA date from roughly November 1990 through November 1991.

Correspondence, memoranda, cables, and diplomatic dispatches are almost entirely classified and provide detailed information about the role of the United States in convening the peace conference. The materials also document the interactions of Middle Eastern nations and the role of European nations in the peace process. All of the materials reveal the detailed, highly complex nature of the negotiations leading up to and during the peace conference and highlight the positions of the various parties involved. The correspondence in particular documents the exchanges among heads of state throughout the negotiations, whereas memoranda, cables, and dispatches reveal the world of the professional negotiators and diplomats involved in the process. All materials shed light on the constantly evolving Middle East peace process. However, it should be emphasized that the vast majority of these materials are not currently available to the public due to security classifications. As stated earlier above, previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Routine correspondence, reports, studies, maps, and printed material also document the peace process and the efforts to convene a Middle East peace conference in Madrid. These materials provide insight into the attitudes and opinions of interest groups as they promoted particular ideas and proposals regarding the Middle East. Some routine correspondence was created by members of Congress or the general public interested in the peace process.

System of Arrangement

Records that are responsive to this FOIA request were found in three collection areas—Bush Presidential Records: WHORM Subject Files; Bush Presidential Records: WHORM Alphabetical Files; and Bush Presidential Records: Staff and Office Files. As policy, Staff and Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. WHORM Subject and WHORM Alphabetical Files are processed at the document level. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

The WHORM Subject File compiled by the White House Office of Records Management is comprised of a series of documents assigned a letter/number combination and filed in a subject category. A complete listing of the subject categories including a detailed description of each category is available in our research room and on our website at <http://bushlibrary.tamu.edu/research/find/whorm/whorm.html>.

Please note that a single asterisk "*" indicates that the category is entirely processed and open.

The following is a list of documents and folders processed in response to FOIA 1998-0497-F.
