Inventory for FOIA Request 2002-1764-F

Records on Popadiuk Interview Files:

Extent

18 folders, approximately 2,633 pages

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records, Bush Vice Presidential Records, and Quayle Vice Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency and vice presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, October, 2005. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2002-1764-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2002-1764-F contains materials from the files of the National Security Council, Special Assistant to the President and Deputy Press Secretary for Foreign Affairs Roman Popadiuk.

The Staff and Office Files contain correspondence from foreign journalists and news organization representatives requesting interviews with (primarily) President Bush and members of his administration as well as the responses to the requestors from the White House Staff regarding whether the interviews were to be accepted or regretted. There are very few records between staff members discussing the merits of the interview requests; those which are included are of a routine nature. In addition to interview correspondence, this request contains several internal transcripts and press releases of presidential interviews.

System of Arrangement

Records that are responsive to this FOIA request were found in one collection area—Bush Presidential Records: Staff and Office Files
