Inventory for FOIA Request 2003-0255-F

Records on Middle East Peace Process: Loan Guarantees to Israel

Extent

103 folders, approximately 13,400 pages

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, January–September 2007. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2003-0255-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2003-0255-F contains four entirely processed WHORM Subject File Categories consisting of letters of correspondence, memoranda, coversheets, notes, distribution lists, newspaper articles, informational papers, cables, Head of State Correspondence, published articles, and reports from the public, the Congress, and Bush Administration officials primarily concerning Middle East peace. There are numerous letters sent by the members of a variety of Jewish, Muslim, and Christian Interest groups, as well as Senators, Congressman, and civilians expressing concerns and/or support for the Bush Administration's policies in relation to Israeli-Palestinian relationships, potential loan guarantees to Israel for the settlement of Jewish immigrants, other U.S. humanitarian efforts in the Middle East, various loans and potential debt forgiveness of a variety of foreign countries, and Middle East peace policy in general. Unsolicited advice and various viewpoints are routinely provided in these correspondences in hopes of influencing various policies with Israel, as well as Bush Administration policies for peace in the Middle East. Often letters are accompanied by informational papers, newspaper articles, and other case study reports in support of the idea being presented. There are often replies offered by various White House offices defending the Bush administration's policy and giving general thanks for concern and inquiry. The drafting of these replies among the various executive branch offices generates routine administrative paperwork, such as the mentioned above memoranda, coversheets, notes, and distribution lists. These replies were most often written by various members of the State Department and the Office of Legislative Affairs and then were generated to the White House as "robo" letters to provide general, non-sensitive responses to the variety of issues related to the Middle East. In addition, there are also numerous letters offering congratulations to President Bush and his administration in regards to the highly positive outcome of the Persian Gulf War.

System of Arrangement

Records that are responsive to this FOIA request were found in one collection area—Bush Presidential Records: WHORM Subject Files. Please note that the four WHORM Subject File categories processed for this FOIA request were entirely processed in a systematic fashion. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

The WHORM Subject File compiled by the White House Office of Records Management is comprised of a series of documents assigned a letter/number combination and filed in a subject category. A complete listing of the subject categories including a detailed description of each category is available in our research room and on our website at <http://bushlibrary.tamu.edu/research/find/whorm/whorm.html>.

Please note that a single asterisk "*" indicates that the category is entirely processed and open.

The following is a list of documents and folders processed in response to FOIA 2003-0255-F.
