Inventory for FOIA Request 2003-0258-F

Selected Windy White Files (Office of Public Liaison), 1992

Extent

79 folders

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records, Bush Vice Presidential Records, and Quayle Vice Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency and vice presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, June 2006. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Related Collections

Related collections may be found in the Office of Presidential Advance and Scheduling, the White House Press Office, and the White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) categories HU (Human Rights), RM (Religious Matters), TR (Trips), and WH (White House Administration). Related series may be found in additional series of the Office of Public Liaison, such as the Kathy Jeavons Files, the Sara Decamp Files, and the James Schaefer Files.

Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2003-0258-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

The bulk of FOIA 2003-0258-F contains materials from agencies and individuals from the Jewish community including the Simon Wiesenthal Center, B'nai B'rith International, the Council of Jewish Federations, Union of Councils for Soviet Jews, Max M. Fisher, and rabbis from around the United States. Other topics broached in FOIA 2003-0258-F include Syrian Jewry, foreign relations with Lebanon, the Los Angeles race riots of 1992 and President Bush's subsequent visits to the city, as well as agricultural and ethnic affairs, and the Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA).

The Staff and Office Files contain correspondence, memoranda, advance schedules and briefings, and publications, as well as presidential speeches, statements, and proclamations maintained by individual staff members and offices. The files within FOIA 2003-0258-F were maintained solely by Windy White, who worked at the White House from April 1992 until the end of the administration as Special Assistant to the Deputy Assistant to the President and Director of the Office of Public Liaison, Cecile B. Kremer—the Office's Jewish community liaison during the same period. As such, the majority of White's files should be considered more Kremer's than White's.

System of Arrangement

Records that are responsive to this FOIA request were found in one collection area—Bush Presidential Records: Staff and Office Files. As policy, WHORM Alphabetical Files and WHORM Subject Files are processed at the document level; whereas, Staff and Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

FOIA 2003-0258-F consists of two series, subject files and chronological files. The subject files are processed according to the order in which the Bush Library received the materials from the White House. The chronological files are arranged chronologically by folder title. For the most part, the contents within the folders of this series are in reverse chronological order, but the researcher may find that, at times, this filing system was not always followed and documents may be misarranged.

The following is a list of documents and folders processed in response to FOIA 2003-0258-F.
