Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Official records of George Bush’s presidency and vice presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Related Collections
Related material may be found in FOIA requests 2004-0732-F (Records on Chile: Bush Vice Presidential Records) and 2004-0733-F (Records on Chile: Quayle Vice Presidential Records) at the George Bush Presidential Library. Also, declassified United States Government records relating to Chile from 1968 to 1991 can be found on the Department of State website: http://www.state.gov/m/a/ips/c22798.htm.
Scope and Content
The materials in FOIA 2004-0731-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

The records relating to FOIA 2004-0731-F contain materials from various individuals, organizations, government agencies, and White House offices. These materials address many individuals, issues, and events.

The WHORM Subject File categories contain briefing papers, cables, certificates, cover sheets, drafts, justifications, letters, memcons, memos, notes, reports, and summaries. WHORM Subject File CO033 concerns the Republic of Chile, including records relating to elections, the poisoned grapes incident in Chile, Chilean trade, correspondence between heads of state, remarks by heads of state during official visits, and appointments of ambassadors. The WHORM subject categories also contain a large number of travel requests by members of the administration and the general public as they traveled from the United States to Chile. Letters from Congress and the public as well as some internal memoranda are present.

The Staff and Office Files contain agendas, appendices, background papers, booklets, briefings, cables, charts, comments, cover sheets, drafts, fact sheets, faxes, forms, graphs, handwritten notes, itineraries, letters, lists, memcons, memos, minutes, non-papers, notes, profiles, papers, photographs, receipts, remarks, reports, scenesetters, summaries, talking points, vitae, and a video cassette. The majority of the information located in the staff and office files pertain to trade, human rights, state visits, the poisoned grapes incident, and official state visits by President Bush to Chile and Patricio Aylwin to the United States. The NSC Numbered Files also contain a large number of travel requests by members of the administration and the general public as they traveled from the United States to Chile.

The researcher should note that the state department reviewed and declassified a substantial amount of information relating to human rights abuses, terrorism, and other acts of political violence prior to, and during, the Pinochet era in Chile. National Archives and Records Administration records that were declassified from the holdings at the George Bush Library can be viewed in this FOIA or by visiting the Department of State's Chile Declassification Project at http://foia.state.gov/SearchColls/Nara.asp. However, for a complete listing of all the agencies that declassified records relating to Chile, from 1968 to 1991, please visit http://www.state.gov/m/maa/ips/c22798.htm.

System of Arrangement
Records that are responsive to this FOIA request were found in two collection areas—Bush Presidential Records: WHORM Subject Files and Bush Presidential Records: Staff and Office Files. As policy, WHORM Alphabetical Files and WHORM Subject Files are processed at the document level. Staff and Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

The WHORM Subject File compiled by the White House Office of Records Management is comprised of a series of documents assigned a letter/number combination and filed in a subject category. A complete listing of the subject categories including a detailed description of each category is available in our research room and on our website at http://bushlibrary.tamu.edu/research/find/whormywhorm.html.

Please note that a single asterisk "*" indicates that the category is entirely processed and open.

The following is a list of documents and folders processed in response to FOIA 2004-0731-F.
