Inventory for FOIA Request 2004-0732-F

Records on Chile [Bush Vice Presidential Records]

Extent

21 folders

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records, Bush Vice Presidential Records, and Quayle Vice Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency and vice presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, June 2009. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Related Collections

Related material may be found in FOIA requests 2004-0731-F (Records on Chile: Bush Presidential Records) and 2004-0733-F (Records on Chile: Quayle Vice Presidential Records) at the George Bush Presidential Library. Also, declassified United States Government records relating to Chile from 1968 to 1991 can be found on the Department of State website: <http://www.state.gov/m/a/ips/c22798.htm>.

Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2007-0732-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

The records relating to FOIA 2004-0732-F contain materials from various individuals, organizations, government agencies, and White House offices. These materials address many individuals, issues, and events.

The Bush Vice Presidential Name File consists of one folder and contains a curriculum vitae and a letter from Peter H. Raven to President Bush regarding the situation in Chile at the time and state of U.S.-Chile relations.

The Bush Vice Presidential WHORM Subject File categories contain coversheets, letters, an invitation, and a newsletter. The coversheets are of a routine nature and accompany letters from Foreign Minister Rene Rojas Galdames to President Bush; President Bush to Harry W. Rieneke; letters to and from Peter H. Raven and President Bush; a State Department response to Peter H. Raven; and a letter from Henry L. Walther to President Bush. The invitation is from the Ambassador of Chile to President Bush regarding the celebration of the National Day of Chile. The newsletter is from the Embassy of Chile's Press Office from June 1982 giving a summary of the recent news headlines regarding the United States and Chile.

The Bush Vice Presidential Staff and Office Files contain biographies, coversheets, an invitation, letters, memoranda, lists, schedules, a map, a news summary, newspaper articles, notes, a press release, and a curriculum vitae. The biographies relate to individuals either newly appointed or who are visiting the United States. Coversheets are of a routine nature and accompany a majority of the material in these files. The invitation is from the Ambassador of Chile to President and Mrs. Bush regarding the celebration of the National Day of Chile. There are several letters and memoranda to and from President Bush, the administration, embassy personnel, and various organizations regarding a range of issues involving Chile. The lists and schedules relate to the members of the Christian Democratic International Delegation's visit the United States. The map shows the two claims that Argentina and Chile have made on land and waters to the south of both countries. The news summary and newspaper articles relate to President Bush, the Justice Department, and a correction run by the New York Times regarding comments made by Langhorne Motley about Chile. The notes are to and from members of the administration and are of a routine nature. The press releases and curriculum vitae both relate to the nomination of James Daniel Theberge (1930–1988) to be Ambassador to Chile.

System of Arrangement

Records that are responsive to this FOIA request were found in three collection areas—Bush Vice Presidential Records: Name Files; Bush Vice Presidential WHORM Files; and Bush Vice Presidential Records: Staff and Office Files. As policy, WHORM Alphabetical Files and WHORM Subject Files are processed at the document level. Staff and Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

The WHORM Subject File compiled by the White House Office of Records Management is comprised of a series of documents assigned a letter/number combination and filed in a subject category. A complete listing of the subject categories including a detailed description of each category is available in our research room and on our website at <http://bushlibrary.tamu.edu/research/find/whorm/whorm.html>.

Please note that a single asterisk "*" indicates that the category is entirely processed and open.

The following is a list of documents and folders processed in response to FOIA 2004-0732-F.
