Inventory for FOIA Request 2004-0733-F

Records on Chile [Quayle Vice Presidential]

Extent

25 folders

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records, Bush Vice Presidential Records, and Quayle Vice Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency and vice presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, July 2009. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Related Collections

Related material may be found in FOIA requests 2004-0731-F (Records on Chile: Bush Presidential Records) and 2004-0732-F (Records on Chile: Bush Vice Presidential Records) at the George Bush Presidential Library. Also, declassified United States Government records relating to Chile from 1968 to 1991 can be found on the Department of State website: <http://www.state.gov/m/a/ips/c22798.htm>.

Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2004-0733-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

The records relating to FOIA 2004-0733-F contain materials from various individuals, organizations, government agencies, and White House offices. These materials address many individuals, issues, and events.

The Quayle Vice Presidential Staff and Office Files contain background notes, a biography, briefing papers, cables, cover sheets, diagrams, fact sheets, graphs, letters, lists, manifests, memo, photographs, reports, schedules, speech cards, and trip booklets. The bulk of this material is related to Vice President Quayle's visit to Venezuela, Barbados, Chile, Paraguay, Argentina, and Brazil in March of 1992. During this visit, Vice President Quayle attended the inauguration ceremonies for President Collor of Brazil and President Aylwin of Chile. The background notes are Department of State profiles of countries such as Paraguay and Chile that Vice President Quayle visited in March of 1990. The biography is of Ambassador to Chile Charles A. Gillespie (1935–2008). The briefing papers consist of economic background and profiles of countries to be visited by Vice President Quayle during his visit to Latin America. The cables consist of materials related to announcements of travel; proposed and fixed schedules; press conference, speech, and toast transcripts; invitations, and travel authorizations. The cover sheets are of a general nature and accompany several of the memoranda. The diagrams show various seating charts for meetings and inaugural ceremonies. The fact sheets relate to the countries visited by Vice President Quayle and are composed of cultural and economic details. Graphs included in these documents relate directly to the economic fact sheets and describe how certain economic indicators have changed over time. The letters in this request consist almost completely of thank you messages from Vice President Quayle to heads of state and various members of embassies and hotels showing appreciation for gifts and work contributed to his visit to Latin America. The lists consist of individuals attending inaugural ceremonies, meetings, and dinners, while the manifests show those aboard Air Force Two and in the vice presidential motorcade. Memoranda are made up of information and planning correspondence for the Latin America trip. Photographs are black and white and are from Vice President Quayle's visit to Chile and his meeting with the Argentine Chamber of Commerce. Reports describe the planning for events scheduled for Mr. and Mrs. Quayle. The numerous schedules, proposed and final, map out the daily arrangements for the multitude of events attended by Mr. and Mrs. Quayle and their delegation during their Latin America trip. The speech cards consist of arrival and departure statements and dinner remarks made by Vice President Quayle during his trip. Finally, the trip booklets are very descriptive minute-by-minute breakdowns of the South America trip and all the events attended by the Vice President and his delegation.

System of Arrangement

Records that are responsive to this FOIA request were found in one collection area—Quayle Vice Presidential Records: Vice Presidential Records: Staff and Office Files. As policy, WHORM Alphabetical Files and WHORM Subject Files are processed at the document level. Staff and Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

The WHORM Subject File compiled by the White House Office of Records Management is comprised of a series of documents assigned a letter/number combination and filed in a subject category. A complete listing of the subject categories including a detailed description of each category is available in our research room and on our website at <http://bushlibrary.tamu.edu/research/find/whorm/whorm.html>.

Please note that a single asterisk "*" indicates that the category is entirely processed and open.

The following is a list of documents and folders processed in response to FOIA 2004-0733-F.
