Records on the Presidential Daily Files

January 20, 1989–January 19, 1992

Extent

1390 folders

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records, Bush Vice Presidential Records, and Quayle Vice Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions. Access to Bush Personal (Donated) Records is governed by Mr. Bush's deed of gift. Personal records restricted under the terms of the deed are so marked in the files.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency and vice presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, January 2010. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Related Collections

Due to the overall scope of the type of documents located in the Daily Files, related material may be found in almost all other files found within the Bush Collection. If the researcher is interested in a particular topic, event, or timeframe, please consult the FOIA listings, or with an archivist.

Scope and Content

The Presidential Daily Files were a separate, working set of records for the President during his administration and maintained by Patricia (Patty) A. Presock, Deputy Assistant to the President, as Chronological Files. The materials found here were selected to be in this particular collection by President Bush or Patty Presock. These records, dated from January 20, 1989 through the end of the Administration, have been systematically processed and are retained in the original arrangement.
