Inventory for FOIA Request 2010-0790-F

Records on White House Fellows Program: [Quayle Vice Presidential]

Extent

7 folders

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records, Bush Vice Presidential Records, and Quayle Vice Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of Dan Quayle's vice presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, March 2010. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Related Collections

Related material may be found in FOIA request 2010-0791-F entitled "White House Fellows Program: Bush Presidential Records" and FOIA request 2010-0793-F entitled "White House Fellows Program: Bush Vice Presidential Records."

Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2010-0790-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2010-0790-F contains materials from agencies and individuals including the Administration Office, the Domestic Policy Office and Council on Competitiveness, and Mrs. Quayle's Office. Records responsive to this request are related to the White House Fellows Program, its candidates and participants.

The Staff and Office Files contain memoranda, resumes, applications, pamphlets, letters, articles, invitations, and guest lists. Correspondence includes inter-office communications concerning the White House Fellows Program applicants and the placement of new fellows within the Bush Administration. Documents related to the backgrounds of fellows—including personal, professional, and educational—are included. Because the application process to the program was both lengthy and detailed, files on individuals can be quite large. Often, applicants included copies of articles with their applications that either highlighted the applicants or were written by them. White House Fellowship pamphlets are included in the material. The invitations and guest lists are for a social coffee hosted by Mrs. Quayle for Fellows' spouses.

System of Arrangement

Records that are responsive to this FOIA request were found in one collection area—Dan Quayle Vice Presidential Records: Staff and Office Files. As policy, Staff and Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

The following is a list of documents and folders processed in response to FOIA 2010-0790-F.
