Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, April 2012. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Scope and Content

The materials in 2011-1285-S are a systematically processed body of documents from the White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject File category C0006.

These records consist of correspondence, memoranda, printed material, and forms. The correspondence includes letters from members of Congress and the general public and the routine replies from the White House and other executive branch agencies regarding topics concerning Angola, such as recent political developments and violence, concern for U.S. policy towards Angola, freedom organizations and attempts at peace settlement, and support for the appointment of Bill Chappel to monitor the election process in Angola. The memoranda consist of standard memos concerning draft correspondence, schedule proposals, and outline of approved presidential activity. Printed material consists of news articles regarding the political situation in Angola. Forms include correspondence tracking sheets, routing sheets, and transmittal forms.

System of Arrangement

Records that are responsive to this request were found in Bush Presidential Records: WHORM Subject Files.

The WHORM Subject File compiled by the White House Office of Records Management is comprised of a series of documents assigned a letter/number combination and filed in a subject category. A complete listing of the subject categories including a detailed description of each category is available in our research room and on our website at <http://bushlibrary.tamu.edu/research/find/whorm/whorm.html>.
