Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, May 2012. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Scope and Content

The materials in 2012-2328-S are a systematically processed body of documents from the White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject File (VP Bush) category CO143.

These records consist of correspondence, forms, memoranda, and printed material. The correspondence contains letters from the general public expressing views and opinions on independence in Namibia and US foreign policy and the routine letters of reply from the Vice President. The forms consist of standard correspondence routing forms. The memo to the Vice President is in regards to the trip to South Africa by the President of the Texas Federation of Republican Women. Printed material includes a copy of the August 3, 1982, Congressional Record on the topic of Soviet expansion in Namibia and US diplomacy. Also included is a newspaper clipping from South Africa containing an article on the George Bush visit to the site of the Beirut bombing.

System of Arrangement

Records that are responsive to this request were found in Bush Vice-Presidential Records: WHORM Subject Files.

The WHORM Subject File compiled by the White House Office of Records Management is comprised of a series of documents assigned a letter/number combination and filed in a subject category. A complete listing of the subject categories including a detailed description of each category is available in our research room and on our website at <http://bushlibrary.tamu.edu/research/find/whorm/whorm.html>.
