Extent

2 folders

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records, Bush Vice Presidential Records, and Quayle Vice Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency and vice presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, August 2013. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

System of Arrangement

Records that are responsive to this FOIA request were found in the Bush Vice Presidential Records: Staff and Office Files. As policy, Staff and Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2013-1196-S are the documents maintained by Craig Fuller, Vice President Bush's Chief of Staff.

These records contain correspondence and printed materials. Internal OVP correspondence arranges meetings and provides background on issues such as the INF Treaty and nuclear nonproliferation. Correspondence between Craig Fuller and private citizens addresses various issues, including Central America, humanitarian aid, and foreign affairs. Printed material consists of clippings about Vice President Bush sent to Craig Fuller with correspondence from private citizens.

The following is a list of documents and folders processed in response to FOIA 2013-1196-S.
