Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records, Bush Vice Presidential Records, and Quayle Vice Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency and vice presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, May 2022. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

System of Arrangement

Records for this systematic project were found in the following collection area—Bush Presidential Records: Staff and Office Files. Staff and Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

Related material may be found in the following FOIA request:

- 1998-0102-F—Records on Bosnia and the Former Yugoslavia
- 2011-2116-F—Records on Immigration from Central America and the Caribbean

Biographical Note

Prior to coming to the NSC, Dyke worked as an Assistant to Vice President Bush for National Security Affairs.

Scope and Content

Case Number 2022-0167-S contains correspondence, reports, printed material, speeches, press releases, and public statements related to Dyke's primary areas of responsibility. The internal White House correspondence addresses administrative issues such as meeting and travel arrangements, press guidance and presidential statements and messages. Correspondence with Congress and with the public discusses issues such as refugees, immigration policy, international broadcasting, and emerging democracies. Enclosed presidential remarks, reports and congressional testimony address topics including civil rights, various UN programs, human rights, international broadcasting, and refugees. Also included are talking points for meetings of President Bush and Brent Scowcroft with foreign leaders, US diplomats and the press.

It should be noted that a significant number of the documents listed here are security classified and have been closed under the restrictions of the Freedom of Information Act.
