Inventory for Systematic Request 2022-0759-S

Records of Richard A. Clarke National Security Council

Extent

216 folders

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records, Bush Vice Presidential Records, and Quayle Vice Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency and vice presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, July 2022. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

System of Arrangement

Records for this systematic project were found in the following collection area—Bush Presidential Records: Staff and Office Files. Staff and Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

Biographical Note

Richard A. Clarke served as Senior Director for International Programs in 1992. His primary areas of responsibility included Counternarcotics, counterterrorism, and border control. Before coming to the NSC, Clarke worked in various positions in the Office of the Secretary of Defense (1973–1977) and the Department of State (1979–1989). He was nominated by President Bush to be Assistant Secretary of State for Politico-Military Affairs in 1989, where he served until joining the NSC. Clarke continued at the NSC until 2003 in various positions, including National Coordinator for Security and Counterterrorism during the Clinton administration and Special Advisor to the President for Cybersecurity during the George W. Bush administration.

Scope and Content

The materials in this collection are a systematically processed body of documents responsive to the topic. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

Case Number 2022-0759-S contains correspondence, reports, printed material, speeches, press releases and public statements related to Clarke's primary areas of responsibility as Senior Director for International Programs. The correspondence addresses administrative issues such as meeting and travel arrangements. Correspondence with Congress and with the public, reports, and speeches discusses issues such as counternarcotics, counterterrorism, and border control.

It should be noted that a significant number of the documents listed here are security classified and have been closed under the restrictions of the Freedom of Information Act.

The following is a list of documents and folders processed in response to Case Number 2022-0759-S.
