Inventory for Systematic Request 2023-0525-S

Records on Office of Policy Development, Warren H. Maruyama Subject Files

Extent

6 boxes/49 folders

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records, Bush Vice Presidential Records, and Quayle Vice Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (CASE NUMBER)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency and vice presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, March 2023. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

System of Arrangement

Records for this systematic project were found in the following collection area—Bush Presidential Records: Staff and Office Files. Staff and Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

Biographical Note

The Office of Policy and Development staff advised and assisted President Bush in the formulation, evaluation, and coordination of long-range domestic and economic policy. It supported the operations of Economic Policy Council (EPC). Warren Maruyama served as Deputy Associate Director, International Economic Policy from November 1989 until October 1992 when he was named Associate Director, International Economic Policy. He helped develop President George H.W. Bush's Super 301, NAFTA, Uruguay Round, and Steel Trade Liberalization initiatives. Maruyama served as an associate general counsel for the United States Trade Representative from 1983–1989, where he successfully litigated General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) and U.S.-Canada Free Trade Agreement (FTA) disputes.

Related Collections

Related material may be found in 1999-0581-F entitled "U.S.-Japan Structural Impediments Initiative (SII)", 1999-0582-F entitled "U.S.-Japan Trade Relations", 2003-0345-F entitled "Australia", 2011-2270-F entitled "Korea, North and South (Additional Files)", 2012-1098-F entitled "China Most Favored Nation (MFN) Status (Bush Presidential)", and 2018-0885-F entitled "European Community."

Scope and Content

The materials in Case Number 2023-0525-S are a systematically processed body of documents responsive to the topic. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

The Staff and Office Files contain correspondence, a statement, documents, talking points, lists, charts, and press releases. The memos and letters include topics such as reminders of strategy group meetings, biological diversity, Western financial assistance for the Soviet Union, trade action plans for Eastern Europe, a U.S.-Soviet trade agreement, waivers and adjustments, the Super 301 measure, the Uruguay Round multilateral trade negotiations, Canadian trade issues, Latin American concerns, and Asian considerations. Of particular note is a letter from Mikhail Gorbachev to President Bush regarding the Summit of Industrialized Countries held in Paris. U.S. Trade Representative Carla Hills' statement to United Nations representatives on a United States Biodiversity Convention Proposal is in this collection. Documents include drafts of free trade agreement negotiations with Mexico (labor standards, health, safety concerns, worker rights, and environmental matters), UNGA drafts of the Climate Change Convention, a scope paper on the UN Convention on Biological Diversity in Nairobi, a grain supply agreement between the U.S. and the U.S.S.R., U.S. commercial space launch policy documentation, an impact analysis on trade when Most Favored Nation status is granted to foreign countries, etc. Also included are White House-generated documents lining out informed perspectives of trade negotiation topics such as the environment, duty rebates and waivers, agreement adjustments, workplace standards, unfair trade practices, intellectual property, and U.S.-U.S.S.R. maritime agreements. Talking points crafted for United States delegates for the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development (UNCED), also known as the Rio Conference or the Earth Summit, and the Soviet Union's economic situation are present. The lists contain issue papers topics and drafters, biodiversity intra-agency working group members and contact information. The charts illustrate global quotas of manufactured goods as well as other trade commodities both domestic and foreign. Lastly, press releases present coverage of the Earth Summit, a biodiversity treaty, the Soviet economic situation, a U.S.-Soviet joint plan for Soviet economy, a steel trade program, etc.

The following is a list of documents and folders processed in response to Case Number 2023-0525-S.
