Inventory for Systematic Request 2023-1068-S

Records on Office of Public Events and Initiatives Stephen M. Studdert Files

Extent

46 folders

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records, Bush Vice Presidential Records, and Quayle Vice Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (CASE NUMBER)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency and vice presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, May 2023. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

System of Arrangement

Records for this systematic project were found in the following collection area—Bush Presidential Records: Staff and Office Files. Staff and Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

Related Collections

Related material may be found in request 2011-2270-F entitled "Korea, North and South (Additional Files)".

Scope and Content

The materials in Case Number 2023-1068-S are a systematically processed body of documents responsive to the topic. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

The White House Office of Special Activities and Initiatives was primarily responsible for planning and staging the president's public appearances. The office was first directed by Stephen M. Studdert who was appointed on February 1, 1989. His title was Assistant to the President for Special Activities and Initiatives. He left his post in October of 1989. Prior to this service, Studdert directed George H. W. Bush's 1989 Presidential inauguration.

Case Number 2023-1068-S contains correspondence, schedules, diagrams, documents, speeches, lists, press releases, newspaper and magazine articles, publications, and White House forms. These records contain materials related to President Bush's trips and those made by his staff. The domestic trips included destinations such as Texas, Mississippi, New York, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Maryland, California, Virginia, Illinois, North Dakota, and Michigan. Foreign destinations included Italy, Belgium, West Germany, England, France, Japan, China, and Korea. Purposes of these trips included commencement ceremonies, a professional baseball game, factory visits, a breakfast with supporters, an inspection of a drug interdiction training facility, various speaking engagements, a memorial service, meetings with foreign dignitaries, and an economic summit.

The following is a list of documents and folders processed in response to Case Number 2023-1068-S.
