MEMORANDUM OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATION

SUBJECT: Telephone Conversation with President Hosni Mubarak of Egypt (U)

PARTICIPANTS: The President
President Mubarak of Egypt
Interpreter: None required
Notetaker: C. David Welch

DECLASSIFIED IN PART
PER E.O. 13526
2005-1148-MR
31 9/13/11

DATE, TIME AND PLACE: August 27, 1990; 9:33 - 9:38 a.m. EST
Kennebunkport

President Mubarak initiated the call. (U)

The President: Good morning, Hosni, how are you? (U)

President Mubarak: Just fine; how are you? (U)

The President: Well, everything is rocking along. The news is reasonably steady. How do you see things? (U)

President Mubarak: We have discussed the issue you raised yesterday. George, I want to tell you very frankly public opinion in the area is not positive now. This will encourage the extremists and fanatics to create problems for Saudi Arabia and for us. It is advisable to postpone or change the timing. (U)

The President: I wanted to see the troops; that's something I should do. Plus, the Congress is coming back into session. There is a domestic concern here. But if public opinion is bad  then we want to know. (U)

President Mubarak: This is what I conclude. Could you send a lower figure? (U)

The President: I had made up my mind to go myself. I thought they were agreeable. (U)

The President: We can ask him, yes, we have good contacts with him. This is exactly what I wanted to know from you -- your very frank assessment. I had wanted to see our troops. (S)

President Mubarak: Well, I'm telling you very seriously. (S)

The President: Thank you very much and goodbye. (U)
