MEMORANDUM OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATION

SUBJECT: Telcon with John Major, Prime Minister of the UK on November 30, 1990 (U)

PARTICIPANTS: The President
John Major, Prime Minister of the UK
Notetaker: Stephen E. Benko, NSC Staff

DATE, TIME AND PLACE: November 30, 1990, 3:06 - 3:15 pm (EST)
The Oval Office

The President: Hello. George Bush here. How are you? (U)

PM Major: Good evening. Just fine, thanks. (U)

The President: I heard you might be able to come over here before Christmas. That would be great if it's true. I hope it's not too inconvenient to your Christmas plans and your wife. I hope she can come too. (U)

PM Major: She's an extremely tolerant girl. I'd be delighted to come. (U)

The President: Barbara would love it if she could come. I was thinking we could get together at Camp David. I look forward to it. (U)

I'm calling about the press conference. I am determined to take the one last step. I wanted to tell you -- I told Fahd and everyone else -- that this means nothing from us on negotiations or concessions of any sort. My view on the Resolution, and thanks go to many here for their heavy work, is that it is helpful to signal our willingness to take that step. That man hasn't got the message yet. Each of us should work bilaterally to convince him we're serious. I've talked to Fahd, Mubarak, Ozal, the Emir, now I've got you, and I'm trying to get France to say that this is no departure. It's only a step to tell him here's what you're up against. (6)

How is it going with your life?  (U)

PM Major: It has not been the most relaxed week, but I am rather pleased with it.  (U)

The President: John, the way you handled everything was very impressive and the response here has been just great.
