MEMORANDUM OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATION

SUBJECT: Telcon with Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif of Pakistan on December 3, 1992.

PARTICIPANTS: The President
Prime Minister Sharif
Notetaker: Bruce Riedel, NSC

DECLASSIFIED IN PART
PER E.O. 13526

DATE, TIME: December 3, 1992; 7:54 - 7:59 a.m.
AND PLACE: The Oval Office

2009-0740-MR
3 10/16/12

President Bush: Mr. Prime Minister, how are you? (U)

Prime Minister Sharif: Very well thank you. (U)

President Bush: Sorry, we had a little phone trouble there. I did not mean to detain you. (U)

Prime Minister Sharif: No problem. (U)

President Bush: I want to speak to you, given your leadership role in Somalia, about what we are doing there now. Let me run through some talking points with you. First, we salute your efforts there to date. You were the first to send forces to help Somalia and we appreciate that. It is clear now, however, that others must join you to accomplish the task. (Ø)

As you know from the press we are ready to play a large role now. The Secretary General pointed out on 30 November the core issue is security. We are seeking now to form an international coalition, under the UN's auspices, to create a peacemaking force in the hardest hit areas. Thugs and warlords are terrorizing Somalis and the relief agencies. (Ø)

The peacemaking forces will get the relief process off the ground. This will be a short term issue. U.S. forces will not be there for a long time, since I think all would agree that would be counterproductive. A regular UN peacekeeping force would follow. (Ø)

The U.S. contribution will be substantial. I will meet with my top defense people today to determine exactly how large. (Ø)

Pakistan has been the first to help Somalia. We would like to ask you to increase your force contribution both for the peacemaking and the peacekeeping force. I don't know if you can help, but if you can it will be a great move. (S)

On timing, we are in close contact with Boutros Ghali. We want the Security Council to act soon. Again, we are appreciative of the role you have played. We salute you. (S)

Prime Minister Sharif: Thank you, Mr. President, for your kind remarks about our role. We have done our duty as we saw it. Will the new force be under the UN umbrella? (U)

President Bush: Yes, under a UN umbrella. We will command our forces, and we will coordinate closely with other elements. (S)

Prime Minister Sharif: We will be very happy to raise the size of our contingent. We were already in the process of doing so. I received your letter today on this issue and we will help. (S)

President Bush: That is wonderful news. We will keep our Ambassador fully briefed so that you can be in close touch with us. I appreciate your leadership. (U)

Prime Minister Sharif: Thank you for taking the trouble to call me. We will be very happy to cooperate with you on this. I only want to say we wish you a very happy career after you leave office this January. I hope the United States can continue to play a role in easing tensions between India and Pakistan. There is a serious human rights problem in Kashmir. (b)(1)

President Bush: (b)(1)

Prime Minister Sharif: Thank you. Let me extend an invitation to you to visit Pakistan in 1993. (U)

President Bush: Thank you. I hope we can work on these issues. I have warm feelings for Pakistan. (U)

Goodbyes.
