Re: Dr. Tariq Aziz's performance on Nightline.

Dear Mr. Gray:

I thought it was principally Outplacement Counselors who had the ability to take B.S. and package it so it smells like roses. Perhaps the Foreign Minister of Iraq was once an Outplacement Counselor.

As a Christian who was talking to a Jew and pretending he didn't know this, his articulate appearance of sincerity is highly questionable, unless one is looking in Chapter 13 of Sun Tzu's Art of War. That Chapter deals with secret agents and is a classic. The problem is "the death agent" (expendable agent) can't know he is functioning as such, so in Aziz's case -- its strictly packaging as roses.

Sincerely,

Bruce W. Haupt, Esq.
