President George Bush
Commander-in-Chief
United States of America
The White House

Dear President Bush:

You and Secretary Baker, other advisors, the Allied Heads of State and their diplomats are to be roundly commended for your balanced and united response to the Iraqi crisis.

Perhaps no sane person on Earth truly envies your job at this moment.

We wish to encourage you further in maximizing the potential for communication and cooperation with other world leaders in this situation, rather than acting unilaterally, if possible.

Perhaps this is an opportunity for you to call for a more effective global security structure, as advocated in the Star Alliance Declaration of Peace. With a global system in place, empowered with real authority and power, neither the primary nor the ultimate burden of enforcement of international law would ever fall again on one, or two, or even twenty nations, by default.

We must quickly put the days of the "Wild West" behind us all.

In the meantime, good luck and good judgement to you always.

We are yours for a safe world of peace, freedom and progress.

Yours faithfully,

Peter Bruce DuMont
