Dear Mr. President and Mrs. Bush,

Thank you very much for the warm welcome you accorded my colleagues and myself on our return from Baghdad. It was most appreciated.

As happy as I am to be home, every time I see one of our POWs being paraded in another Iraqi outrage, I wonder if my continued presence in Baghdad could have been helpful to our brave soldiers.

Mr. President, the farther from Baghdad that I am, the more persuaded I am that Saddam never intended to leave Kuwait and that the use of force was absolutely necessary to enforce the U.N. resolutions. Please know that you have my full support and admiration for the difficult decisions you have had to make. If there is ever anything I can do to be of assistance please don't hesitate to call.

Mrs. Bush, thank you so much for the warm hug. I was more than ready for one!
my best wishes to you both.

Sincerely,
JOE WILSON
