Dear Dr. Khailany:

Thank you for your recent letter requesting a meeting with the President for members of the Kurdish National Congress of North America.

While we appreciate your extending this invitation to the President, I do not foresee an opportunity when the President might be able to accept. I know you will understand that, with the tremendous demands on the President's time and the many similar opportunities presented to him, we often must decline these special requests.

The President regrets that he is unable to respond to your letter personally. I know that he would want me to thank you for your interest and to express to you his very best wishes.

Sincerely,

KATHERINE L. SUPER
Deputy Assistant to the President for Appointments and Scheduling

Dear Mr. President:

As a representative of the Kurdish American community we request a meeting with you to explore possible solutions to the Kurdish crisis in Iraq. We are confident that such a meeting will be very useful to the interests of our U.S. government and the well being of the Kurdish people in Iraq at such critical time.

Sincerely,

Dr. Asad Khailany, President
