Mr. C. Boyden Gray
Counsel to the President
Executive Office of the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Gray:

As you may know, the House Committee on the Judiciary is in the process of considering serious allegations of possible illegal activities undertaken by members of the Bush Administration and others in assisting the regime of Saddam Hussein during the months directly preceding the invasion of Iraq in August 1990. The purpose of this oversight is to enable the Committee to determine if it should, in exercise of its authority under the Ethics in Government Act (28 U.S.C. § 592(g)), request that the Attorney General apply for an Independent Counsel.

On June 2, 1992, I called a hearing of the full Committee to hear testimony from four Members of Congress who have investigated various aspects of the United States' dealings with Iraq in the period leading up to its invasion of Kuwait. I have scheduled an additional day of hearings on Tuesday, June 23, at 9:30 a.m. in Room 2141 of the Rayburn House Office Building. I am requesting that you appear to testify before the Committee at that time. A "Notice to Witnesses" regarding prepared statements is enclosed.

Your testimony will be extremely helpful to the Committee as it evaluates allegations that members of the National Security Council (NSC) who participated in the White House policy decisions involving Iraq had a financial conflict of interest under 18 U.S.C. § 208 because they had a financial interest in companies that would benefit from those decisions. I would appreciate it if you would come prepared to discuss in detail the evaluations you and others made of the financial disclosure statements of the members of the NSC which led to the President's August 8, 1990 decision to grant exemptions from the Ethics in Government Act's financial conflict-of-interest provisions to you and those individuals. In addition, the Committee also wishes to probe your involvement in, or knowledge of, any withholding, altering or tampering with official government documents dealing with Iraq prior to the transmittal of such documents to Congress.

I will appreciate your personal assistance in furthering the work of the Committee in this regard, and I look forward to hearing your testimony on June 23. With every good wish, I am

Sincerely,

JACK BROOKS
Chairman

COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

NOTICE TO WITNESSES

Prepared Statements

Section 113(b) of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1970 provides that each committee of the House of Representatives shall, insofar as practicable, require all witnesses appearing before it to file in advance written statements of their proposed testimony, and to limit their oral presentation to a brief summary.

The House Committee on the Judiciary will require all witnesses scheduled to testify before it to provide the Committee with a minimum of 50 copies of a prepared statement and 50 copies of a one-page summary at least forty-eight hours prior to the scheduled appearance of the witness. While there is no set form required for the prepared statement, it is recommended that the statement be typewritten (double spaced) or printed. The 50 copies will be for the use of the members and staff of the Committee and any additional copies of the prepared statement will be made available to the press and the public. A copy of a biographical sketch is also required to be submitted with the witness' statement.
