Dear Mr. President:

I was concerned by Ross Perot's comments on the events leading up to the invasion of Kuwait by Iraq. He sure made it sound like a cover-up. Later, I heard on NBC that Brent Scowcroft said all the documents had been released, including the written instructions to Ambassador Gillaspie and her cabled response to the State Department after the meeting with Saddam Hussein.

I sure am glad to hear that all the documents have been released and that there was no cover-up. Since they have been released, how do I get a copy of the documents? Will your staff send me a copy of the cable and the written instructions? I will pay whatever fee is required.

Sincerely,

John W. Cork
