Dear C. Boyden Gray

Enclosed is copy of letter sent to the Ambassador of Kuwait. This was sent by certified mail return receipt. No answer has been received.

I understand we recently helped these people out of a problem.

Also this man from Iraq is getting ready to cause another problem.

Analogy - he wants to go down in history. He probably now has material that can be placed in a moving body of water and cause a problem that will last for a long period of time.

When this man with his help from Libya get together plus the entry that is available to them we had better get this over.

I would dislike very much to see this scenario played out due mostly to the fact that it will affect my grandchildren.

Again I remind that until you have spilled a little blood such as purple hearts and other we better get our head out of the sand.

Best of luck

Dear Sir:

A military retirement community will be built in the Las Cruces New Mexico USA in the near future. Las Cruces is near Fort Bliss, Texas and Hollomon Air Base located near Alamogordo New Mexico USA.

Bonds will be used to finance this community. We would appreciate the person in charge and is able to make a decision in the Kuwait Investment Corporation office of the Bank of Kuwait located in London, England. We understand the location is the St. Vedast House in London.

A response would be appreciated as to interest in purchasing these bonds.

Best of luck,

Leland A. Wittkopp
