Dear Mr. President:

While we all are grateful for the success of Operation Desert Storm, it is imperative that we continue to advocate adherence to international standards of human rights by the nation of Kuwait.

The horrible destruction Kuwait experienced at the hands of its Iraqi neighbors does not justify human-rights violations by the Kuwaiti government. Many questions have been raised about the standards of justice currently operative in Kuwait, with regard to both the treatment of suspected criminals and the expulsion to Iraq of persons whose lives will be in imminent danger there.

I would ask that you, who have played such an important role in promoting democratic processes throughout the world during the last three years, continue to do so publicly in this case as well. I hope you will communicate to the Kuwaiti government our concerns for the human rights of all persons currently within that nation's borders, and specifically our concern that Kuwait adhere to procedures of justice and asylum that are verifiably in accord with internationally recognized standards.

Thank you very much for your concern for the people of Kuwait and for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
