Dear Mr. McClure:

Public Law 102-25, Section 606 (f) requires the President to submit a report to Congress by June 6, 1991 and every four months thereafter with respect to contracting for the rebuilding of Kuwait. As of September 30, 1990, legislative operations staff for the House of Representatives indicate that no report has yet been submitted by the President.

As the author of legislation similar to the language that was finally adopted by the House and Senate in P.L. 102-25, Section 606 (f) and as the Congressional representative for constituents who are interested in gaining employment and contracting opportunities in Kuwait, I am very interested in the President's report.

I would appreciate knowing when the first report will be submitted to Congress. Thank you for your attention to this matter, and I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

George E. Brown, Jr.
