Dear Mr. Mulleneaux:

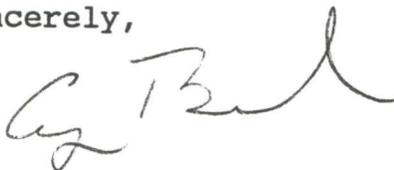

Thank you so much for your kind letter and for the terrific photographs. I loved the one of the young boys, and my portrait was certainly interesting.

I was pleased to learn that you were warmly received by the people of Kuwait. By taking swift and decisive action in behalf of that country, the United States defended the ideal of self-determination for all peoples. Of this, we can be proud -- as your experiences in Kuwait verify.

It was also very gratifying to learn of your work with the International Law Enforcement Olympics. Sporting events promote goodwill and cooperation among nations, and I wish you well in your efforts to develop athletic competitions with other countries.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Mr. Gary Mulleneaux

I have enclosed a couple photos that I took in Kuwait. As I visited the "Martyrs at Qoureen's House" I saw a group of young boys across the street. They were watching as the Prime Minister of Benin was leaving the house. I noticed the back of one of the shirts on which you can see the United States and Kuwait flags on either side. The words on the back say "Kuwait Is Free, Thank You America", sorry I couldn't get a close up, but you can see what feelings the Kuwaiti people have for our country and our people.

The other photo is of a painting I came across as I was shopping for a gift for my wife. I entered the Mukamis Store in Safat and saw the painting of you wearing their traditional clothing. I think they thought I was crazy as I backed up in the store to photograph their wall, but I thought you might enjoy seeing it.

I wish you all the best in the upcoming election and hope you and Mrs. Bush prosper in good health and spirits in the future. Thank you for all you have done for the American people as well as the people of the world.

Sincerely,

Gary E. Mulleneaux,
President, ILEO

President George Bush

June 10, 1992

Dear Mr. President,

I am writing to you to inform you of a trip I recently made to Kuwait. I was invited there by the Minister of the Interior Sheikh Ahmed Al-Hamoud Al-Sabah to discuss police sports between our countries for the future. While there I had the honor of also meeting with the President of the Kuwait Olympic Committee, Sheikh Ahmed Fahed Al-Sabah. It was an incredible experience and I was treated more of a V.I.P. than ever in my life due mainly to your actions in the Gulf War.

I was very proud to be an American and to be in Kuwait to represent the law enforcement officers of our country. I can report to you that if the elections were taking place in Kuwait you would not have trouble finding people who remember what you have done. It appears that you have to contend with the mind set of "Yes, that was great, but what have you done for me today!"

This visit to Kuwait brought to mind a very real message to me when I dealt with the people there, as well as the other country representatives present. Some of the other visitors were from Spain, Egypt, France, Switzerland and Italy. The message was that you have been very good for the United States through the work you have done internationally. If we as a people are to prosper and survive we must work together on a worldwide basis. We can get tunnel vision and worry about ourselves or we can work to improve the living standards for all people.
