MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: THE EXECUTIVE CLERK

FROM: BRENT SCOWCROFT

SUBJECT: Report to Congress on Iraq Emergency

Purpose

To extend the Iraq Emergency.

Background

The law requires that prior to August 2, 1991, you inform Congress and publish in the Federal Register a notice extending the Iraq Emergency which was declared on August 2, 1990. Treasury and Defense have prepared the notice (Tabs A) and the message to Congress (Tab B). A copy of the Executive Order declaring the national emergency is at Tab C. The letters from Defense and Treasure transmitting the notice are at Tabs D and E.

RECOMMENDATION

That you sign the notice at Tab A and the message to Congress at Tab B.

NOTICE

CONTINUATION OF IRAQI EMERGENCY

On August 2, 1990, by Executive Order No. 12722, I declared a national emergency to deal with the unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and foreign policy of the United States constituted by the actions and policies of the Government of Iraq. By Executive Orders Nos. 12722 of August 2 and 12724 of August 9, 1990, I imposed trade sanctions on Iraq and blocked Iraqi government assets. Similar sanctions were imposed against occupied Kuwait by Executive Orders Nos. 12723 and 12725 of August 2 and August 9, 1990, respectively, which were terminated by Executive Order No. 12771 of July 25, 1991. Because the Government of Iraq has continued its activities hostile to U.S. interests in the Middle East, the national emergency declared on August 2, 1990, and the measures adopted on August 2 and August 9, 1990, to deal with that emergency must continue in effect beyond August 2, 1991. Therefore, in accordance with section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)), I am continuing the national emergency with respect to Iraq.

This notice shall be published in the Federal Register and transmitted to the Congress.

THE WHITE HOUSE,

TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES:

Section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)) provides for the automatic termination of a national emergency unless, prior to the anniversary date of its declaration, the President publishes in the Federal Register and transmits to the Congress a notice stating that the emergency is to continue in effect beyond the anniversary date. In accordance with this provision, I have sent the enclosed notice, stating that the Iraqi emergency is to continue in effect beyond August 2, 1991, to the Federal Register for publication.

The crisis between the United States and Iraq that led to the declaration on August 2, 1990, of a national emergency has not been resolved. The Government of Iraq continues to engage in activities inimical to stability in the Middle East and hostile to U.S. interests in the region. Such Iraqi actions pose a continuing unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and vital foreign policy interests of the United States. For these reasons, I have determined that it is necessary to maintain in force the broad authorities necessary to apply economic pressure to the Government of Iraq.

THE WHITE HOUSE,

To the Clerk of the House: 7-26-91 (2:20p)
To the Senate: 7-26-91 (2:30p)
Executive Order 12722 of August 2, 1990

Blocking Iraqi Government Property and Prohibiting Transactions With Iraq

I, GEORGE BUSH, President of the United States of America, find that the policies and actions of the Government of Iraq constitute an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and foreign policy of the United States and hereby declare a national emergency to deal with that threat.

I hereby order:

Section 1. All property and interests in property of the Government of Iraq, its agencies, instrumentalities and controlled entities and the Central Bank of Iraq that are in the United States, that hereafter come within the United States or that are or hereafter come within the possession or control of United States persons, including their overseas branches, are hereby blocked.

Section 2. The following are prohibited, except to the extent provided in regulations which may hereafter be issued pursuant to this Order:

(a) The import into the United States of any goods or services of Iraqi origin, other than publications and other informational materials;

(b) The export to Iraq of any goods, technology (including technical data or other information controlled for export pursuant to Section 5 of the Export Administration Act (50 U.S.C. App. 2404)) or services from the United States, except publications and other informational materials, and donations of articles intended to relieve human suffering, such as food, clothing, medicine and medical supplies intended strictly for medical purposes;

(c) Any transaction by a United States person relating to transportation to or from Iraq; the provision of transportation to or from the United States by any Iraqi person or any vessel or aircraft of Iraqi registration; or the sale in the United States by any person holding authority under the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (49 U.S.C. 1514), of any transportation by air which includes any stop in Iraq;

(d) The purchase by any United States person of goods for export from Iraq to any country;

(e) The performance by any United States person of any contract in support of an industrial or other commercial or governmental project in Iraq;

(f) The grant or extension of credits or loans by any United States person to the Government of Iraq, its instrumentalities and controlled entities;

(g) Any transaction by a United States person relating to travel by any United States citizen or permanent resident alien to Iraq, or to activities by any such person within Iraq, after the date of this Order, other than transactions necessary to effect such person's departure from Iraq, or travel for journalistic activity by persons regularly employed in such capacity by a newsgathering organization; and
(h) Any transaction by any United States person which evades or avoids, or has the purpose of evading or avoiding, any of the prohibitions set forth in this Order.

For purposes of this Order, the term "United States person" means any United States citizen, permanent resident alien, juridical person organized under the laws of the United States, or any person in the United States.

Section 3. This Order is effective immediately.

Section 4. The Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State, is hereby authorized to take such actions, including the promulgation of rules and regulations, as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Order. Such actions may include prohibiting or regulating payments or transfers of any property or any transactions involving the transfer of anything of economic value by any United States person to the Government of Iraq, its instrumentalities and controlled entities, or to any Iraqi national or entity owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by Iraq or Iraqi nationals. The Secretary may redelegate any of these functions to other officers and agencies of the Federal government. All agencies of the United States government are directed to take all appropriate measures within their authority to carry out the provisions of this Order, including the suspension or termination of licenses or other authorizations in effect as of the date of this Order.

This Order shall be transmitted to the Congress and published in the Federal Register.

THE WHITE HOUSE,
August 2, 1990.

Editorial note: For a statement by Deputy Press Secretary Popadiuk on the blockage of Iraqi and Kuwaiti property, see the Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents (vol. 26, no. 31).
THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY
WASHINGTON

July 12, 1991

The President
The White House
Washington, D.C.  20500

Dear Mr. President:

Under the National Emergencies Act, the declaration of national emergency with respect to Iraq will terminate on August 2, 1991, unless, prior to that date, you publish in the Federal Register and transmit to the Congress a notice stating that the Emergency is to continue in effect. If the Iraqi emergency were allowed to lapse, the current Iraqi sanctions, including the blocking of Iraqi governmental assets, would also lapse, impairing our Government's ability to apply economic pressure on the Iraqi government to discontinue activities hostile to U.S. interests. In addition, the Iraq Sanctions Act of 1990 requires that the Iraq sanctions be kept in place unless you provide 15 days' notice to the Congress prior to their termination.

For these reasons, I recommend that you sign, transmit to the Congress, and publish in the Federal Register the necessary notice of extension.

Enclosed are the following documents:

-- The proposed notice of extension;

-- A proposed message transmitting the notice to the Congress; and

-- A copy of the Executive Order declaring the national emergency.

Sincerely,

Nicholas F. Brady

Honorable Brent Scowcroft
Assistant to the President
for National Security Council
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear General Scowcroft:

I am forwarding for your consideration a draft Notice to continue the national emergency declared on August 2, 1990, in Executive Order No. 12722, and such Notice prescribed in sections 202(d) of the National Emergency Act (50 U.S.C. § 1622(d)).

In view of instability in Southwest Asia, continued deployment of regular and reserve forces and the failure of Iraq to comply with the terms of the cease fire, the Department of Defense considers it prudent to continue the national emergency beyond August 2, 1991, so that statutory authority dependent on the existence of a national emergency may be invoked to ensure compliance with all relevant resolutions of the United Nations Security Council concerning the situation in Southwest Asia.

Sincerely,

Terrence O'Donnell

Enclosure
Notice of July _______, 1991

Continuation of Southwest Asian Emergency

On August 2, 1990, by Executive Order No. 12722, I declared a national emergency to deal with the unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States caused by the invasion of Kuwait by Iraq. Because of continued instability caused by the failure of Iraq to comply with all relevant resolutions of the United Nations Security Council, the national emergency declared on August 2, 1990, must continue in effect beyond August 2, 1991. Therefore, in accordance with section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)), I am continuing the national emergency with respect to Iraq and Southwest Asia. This notice shall be published in the Federal Register and transmitted to the Congress.

Section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)) provides for the automatic termination of a national emergency unless, prior to the anniversary date of its declaration, the President publishes in the Federal Register and transmits to the Congress a notice stating that the emergency is to continue in effect beyond the anniversary date. In accordance with this provision, I have sent the enclosed notice, stating that the Iraqi emergency is to continue in effect beyond August 2, 1991, to the Federal Register for publication.

The crisis between the United States and Iraq that led to the declaration on August 2, 1990, of a national emergency has not been resolved. The Government of Iraq continues to engage in activities inimical to stability in the Middle East and hostile to U.S. interests in the region. Such Iraqi actions pose a continuing unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and vital foreign policy interests of the United States. For these reasons, I have determined that it is necessary to maintain in force the broad authorities necessary to apply economic pressure to the Government of Iraq.

THE WHITE HOUSE,
CONTINUATION OF IRAQI EMERGENCY

On August 2, 1990, by Executive Order No. 12722, I declared a national emergency to deal with the unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and foreign policy of the United States constituted by the actions and policies of the Government of Iraq. By Executive Orders No. 12722 of August 2, 1990, and 12724 of August 9, 1990, I imposed trade sanctions on Iraq and blocked Iraqi government assets. Similar sanctions were imposed against occupied Kuwait by Executive Orders No. 12723 and 12725 of August 2, and August 9, 1990, respectively. [which were terminated by Executive Order No. 12 of June 2, 1991.] Because the Government of Iraq has continued its activities hostile to U.S. interests in the Middle East, the national emergency declared on August 2, 1990, and the measures adopted on August 2 and August 9, 1990, to deal with that emergency must continue in effect beyond August 2, 1991. Therefore, in accordance with Section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)), I am continuing the national emergency with respect to Iraq. THE WHITE HOUSE

July ___, 1991

Enclosure
Executive Order 12722 of August 2, 1990

Blocking Iraqi Government Property and Prohibiting Transactions With Iraq

I, GEORGE BUSH, President of the United States of America, find that the policies and actions of the Government of Iraq constitute an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and foreign policy of the United States and hereby declare a national emergency to deal with that threat.

I hereby order:

Section 1. All property and interests in property of the Government of Iraq, its agencies, instrumentalities and controlled entities and the Central Bank of Iraq that are in the United States, that hereafter come within the United States or that are or hereafter come within the possession or control of United States persons, including their overseas branches, are hereby blocked.

Section 2. The following are prohibited, except to the extent provided in regulations which may hereafter be issued pursuant to this Order:

(a) The import into the United States of any goods or services of Iraqi origin, other than publications and other informational materials;

(b) The export to Iraq of any goods, technology (including technical data or other information controlled for export pursuant to Section 5 of the Export Administration Act (50 U.S.C. App. 2404)) or services from the United States, except publications and other informational materials, and donations of articles intended to relieve human suffering, such as food, clothing, medicine and medical supplies intended strictly for medical purposes;

(c) Any transaction by a United States person relating to transportation to or from Iraq; the provision of transportation to or from the United States by any Iraqi person or any vessel or aircraft of Iraqi registration; or the sale in the United States by any person holding authority under the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (49 U.S.C. 1514), of any transportation by air which includes any stop in Iraq;

(d) The purchase by any United States person of goods for export from Iraq to any country;

(e) The performance by any United States person of any contract in support of an industrial or other commercial or governmental project in Iraq;

(f) The grant or extension of credits or loans by any United States person to the Government of Iraq, its instrumentalities and controlled entities;

(g) Any transaction by a United States person relating to travel by any United States citizen or permanent resident alien to Iraq, or to activities by any such person within Iraq, after the date of this Order, other than transactions necessary to effect such person's departure from Iraq, or travel for journalistic activity by persons regularly employed in such capacity by a news-gathering organization; and
(h) Any transaction by any United States person which evades or avoids, or has the purpose of evading or avoiding, any of the prohibitions set forth in this Order.

For purposes of this Order, the term "United States person" means any United States citizen, permanent resident alien, juridical person organized under the laws of the United States, or any person in the United States.

Section 3. This Order is effective immediately.

Section 4. The Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State, is hereby authorized to take such actions, including the promulgation of rules and regulations, as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Order. Such actions may include prohibiting or regulating payments or transfers of any property or any transactions involving the transfer of anything of economic value by any United States person to the Government of Iraq, its instrumentalities and controlled entities, or to any Iraqi national or entity owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by Iraq or Iraqi nationals. The Secretary may redelegate any of these functions to other officers and agencies of the Federal government. All agencies of the United States government are directed to take all appropriate measures within their authority to carry out the provisions of this Order, including the suspension or termination of licenses or other authorizations in effect as of the date of this Order.

This Order shall be transmitted to the Congress and published in the Federal Register.

The President
The White House
Washington, D.C.  20500

Dear Mr. President:

Under the National Emergencies Act, the declaration of national emergency with respect to Iraq will terminate on August 2, 1991, unless, prior to that date, you publish in the Federal Register and transmit to the Congress a notice stating that the Emergency is to continue in effect. If the Iraqi emergency were allowed to lapse, the current Iraqi sanctions, including the blocking of Iraqi governmental assets, would also lapse, impairing our Government's ability to apply economic pressure on the Iraqi government to discontinue activities hostile to U.S. interests. In addition, the Iraq Sanctions Act of 1990 requires that the Iraq sanctions be kept in place unless you provide 15 days' notice to the Congress prior to their termination.

For these reasons, I recommend that you sign, transmit to the Congress, and publish in the Federal Register the necessary notice of extension.

Enclosed are the following documents:

-- The proposed notice of extension;

-- A proposed message transmitting the notice to the Congress; and

-- A copy of the Executive Order declaring the national emergency.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Dear General Scowcroft:

I am forwarding for your consideration a draft Notice to continue the national emergency declared on August 2, 1990, in Executive Order No. 12722, and such Notice prescribed in sections 202(d) of the National Emergency Act (50 U.S.C. § 1622(d)).

In view of instability in Southwest Asia, continued deployment of regular and reserve forces and the failure of Iraq to comply with the terms of the cease fire, the Department of Defense considers it prudent to continue the national emergency beyond August 2, 1991, so that statutory authority dependent on the existence of a national emergency may be invoked to ensure compliance with all relevant resolutions of the United Nations Security Council concerning the situation in Southwest Asia.

Sincerely,

Continuation of Southwest Asian Emergency

On August 2, 1990, by Executive Order No. 12722, I declared a national emergency to deal with the unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States caused by the invasion of Kuwait by Iraq. Because of continued instability caused by the failure of Iraq to comply with all relevant resolutions of the United Nations Security Council, the national emergency declared on August 2, 1990, must continue in effect beyond August 2, 1991. Therefore, in accordance with section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)), I am continuing the national emergency with respect to Iraq and Southwest Asia. Dear Mr. President:

Under the National Emergencies Act, the declaration of national emergency with respect to Iraq will terminate on August 2, 1991, unless, prior to that date, you publish in the Federal Register and transmit to the Congress a notice stating that the Emergency is to continue in effect. If the Iraqi emergency were allowed to lapse, the current Iraqi sanctions, including the blocking of Iraqi governmental assets, would also lapse, impairing our Government's ability to apply economic pressure on the Iraqi government to discontinue activities hostile to U.S. interests. In addition, the Iraq Sanctions Act of 1990 requires that the Iraq sanctions be kept in place unless you provide 15 days' notice to the Congress prior to their termination.

For these reasons, I recommend that you sign, transmit to the Congress, and publish in the Federal Register the necessary notice of extension.

Enclosed are the following documents:

-- The proposed notice of extension;

-- A proposed message transmitting the notice to the Congress; and

-- A copy of the Executive Order declaring the national emergency.

Sincerely,

Nicholas F. Brady

Honorable Brent Scowcroft
Assistant to the President
for National Security Council
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear General Scowcroft:

I am forwarding for your consideration a draft Notice to continue the national emergency declared on August 2, 1990, in Executive Order No. 12722, and such Notice prescribed in sections 202(d) of the National Emergency Act (50 U.S.C. § 1622(d)).

In view of instability in Southwest Asia, continued deployment of regular and reserve forces and the failure of Iraq to comply with the terms of the cease fire, the Department of Defense considers it prudent to continue the national emergency beyond August 2, 1991, so that statutory authority dependent on the existence of a national emergency may be invoked to ensure compliance with all relevant resolutions of the United Nations Security Council concerning the situation in Southwest Asia.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

for Terrence O'Donnell

Enclosure
Notice of July _____, 1991

Continuation of Southwest Asian Emergency

On August 2, 1990, by Executive Order No. 12722, I declared a national emergency to deal with the unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States caused by the invasion of Kuwait by Iraq. Because of continued instability caused by the failure of Iraq to comply with all relevant resolutions of the United Nations Security Council, the national emergency declared on August 2, 1990, must continue in effect beyond August 2, 1991. Therefore, in accordance with section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)), I am continuing the national emergency with respect to Iraq and Southwest Asia. This notice shall be published in the Federal Register and transmitted to the Congress.

George Bush

The White House,

_______, 1991.
