THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

March 18, 1991

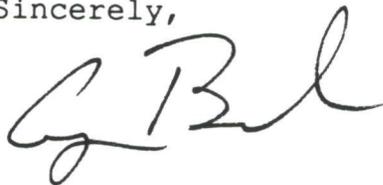

Dear Miguel and Christiane:

Many thanks for your note on my March 6 speech to the Congress. I feel a deep sense of satisfaction that our coalition's objectives have been achieved, and that Kuwait has been liberated. The men and women of our armed forces are beginning to return home; they are doing so with their heads high, and with the love and support of the entire country.

I am delighted that my speech coincided with the birth of your third granddaughter Monica. Please extend congratulations from Barbara and me to the proud parents. I hope she will grow up to be as brilliant as her grandfather and as lovely as her grandmother.

We too are working hard to bring about the historic free trade agreement with Mexico and Canada, and you can be assured that I am fully committed to seeing this come to fruition.

Sincerely,

Mr. and Mrs. Miguel V. Aleman
Special Mission Ambassador

Dear Mr. President,

Christiane and I wish to express our deepest congratulations for such an emotive and historic speech you pronounced last night.

We are working very hard on the free trade agreement, which will be no doubt of great importance for the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Last night, while you were speaking, my third granddaughter Mónica was born. Christiane and I think it was a very lucky coincidence.

We feel very proud of our friend.
