Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records, Bush Vice Presidential Records, and Quayle Vice Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency and vice presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, November 2011. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Related Collections

Related material may be found in FOIA request 2011-2116-F entitled "Haiti".

Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2011-1342-S are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2011-1342-S contains materials from agencies and individuals including correspondence to the President from citizens, immigrant/ Haitian interest groups, and members of Congress urging U.S. assistance to Haiti in the form of financial aid; ending, maintaining, or granting exemptions to the embargo for American businesses in Haiti; restoring democracy; and allowing/ disallowing Haitian boat people to obtain asylum in the United States. (Almost the entirety of the request consists of this correspondence.) Also included are schedule proposals suggesting the President meet with Haitian President Ertha Trouillot and routine transmittal forms and memoranda related to the materials listed above.

System of Arrangement

The WHORM Subject File compiled by the White House Office of Records Management is comprised of a series of documents assigned a letter/number combination and filed in a subject category. A complete listing of the subject categories including a detailed description of each category is available in our research room and on our website at <http://bushlibrary.tamu.edu/research/find/whorm/whorm.html>.
