CO120 is a secondary subject category containing government forms, letters, a paper, a list, a press release, and a publication. The letters from private citizens cover multiple topics including the US government's strategic link with Israel, full member status in the World Health Organization for the Palestinian Liberation Organization (PLO), Palestinian school closures by Israeli authorities, dialogue between the US and the PLO, Yitshak Shamir's visit to the White House, US policy regarding a united Jerusalem, treatment of Palestinians by Israeli authorities, and Israeli-Palestinian peace. The paper contains testimony that the Coalition for Palestinian Rights members presented before the Subcommittee on Foreign Operations of the Committee on Appropriations. There is a list of attempted terrorist attacks against Israeli targets by Arafat-aligned factions. President Bush's statement on suspending dialogue between the US and PLO is outlined in a press release. Lastly, The Hidden History of Zionism, rounds out the subject category.
