Inventory for Systematic Review

Records on WHORM Subject File FG017 (Department of Justice)

Extent

2.6 ft.; boxes 253-258 scanned, box 259 unscanned and C.F.

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, 1996–1997. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Scope and Content

The materials in FG017 (Department of Justice) are a systematically processed body of documents from the White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject File. A secondary subject file category containing memoranda, letters, new articles, and reports concerning pardons, job recommendations for DOJ positions, proposed testimony, the appointment of William Lucas as Assistant Attorney General for Civil Rights, the Clarence Thomas nomination, the nomination of Michael Martinez as Assistant Attorney General, and personal judicial problems. this category also contains information on military appointments, draft legislation concerning the DOJ, pending and current government litigation, the Annual Reports of the DOJ to the President, and weekly DOJ updates prepared for the White House staff.

System of Arrangement

Records that are responsive to this FOIA request were found in Bush Presidential Records: WHORM Subject Files.

The WHORM Subject File compiled by the White House Office of Records Management is comprised of a series of documents assigned a letter/number combination and filed in a subject category. A complete listing of the subject categories including a detailed description of each category is available in our research room and on our website at <http://bushlibrary.tamu.edu/research/find/whorm/whorm.html>.
