Inventory for Systematic Review

Records on WHORM Subject File LE002 (Vetoes and Repeals)

Extent

2.1 ft.; boxes 16-21 scanned

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Bush Presidential Records is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)(5 USC 552 as amended) and the Presidential Records Act (PRA)(44 USC 22) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George Bush's presidency are housed at the George Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processed By

Staff Archivists, 1996–1997. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.

Scope and Content

The materials in LE002 (Vetoes and Repeals) are a systematically processed body of documents from the White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject File. This secondary subject category contains letters, memoranda, enrolled bills, and miscellaneous printed materials. The vast majority of letters and memoranda in this series include information about the Presidential line item veto. The issue is discussed in some detail by legal scholars who believe that the President is vested with inherent line item veto power. Often attached to letters are copies of law review articles or editorials relating to the President's veto power. Memos to and from the President's legal counsel and White House staff discuss the inherent line item veto argument. Also discussed in some detail is the Presidential pocket veto. A large segment of this subcategory consists of copies of enrolled bills along with Statements of Administration Policy which include Senior Advisors Veto Threats.

System of Arrangement

Records that are responsive to this FOIA request were found in Bush Presidential Records: WHORM Subject Files.

The WHORM Subject File compiled by the White House Office of Records Management is comprised of a series of documents assigned a letter/number combination and filed in a subject category. A complete listing of the subject categories including a detailed description of each category is available in our research room and on our website at <http://bushlibrary.tamu.edu/research/find/whorm/whorm.html>.
